II. Communication

- a. 24 HOUR RULE: During sports of any kind, disagreement and confrontation are inevitable. For this reason, we have adopted the "24 HOUR RULE", which simply states that no member of the team shall discuss game situations until at least 24 hours after the game. This rule helps to move the discussion away from the presence of other players and allows all parties to have time to put things in perspective and cool off if necessary.

Games must be started when both teams have the minimum number of players required (4), but teams are not required to begin a game before the scheduled time. If a team does not have the minimum number of players required to participate it will be ruled a forfeit.

If the game is still a tied at the conclusion of that overtime period, the game will end in a tie. Tournament Games Only: A winner must be decided.
